

A start-up initiative from Deloitte Future Fund & Impact Hub Vienna

We promote the ideas and initiatives of social entrepreneurs who are preparing refugees for the Austrian labor market, creating jobs for asylum-seekers and helping them to build a life and livelihood in their new country.

To be successfully integrated and included in Austrian society, it is critical that approved refugees have the opportunity to join the labor market. Through work, refugees are able to achieve self-reliance and to become engaged, integrated citizens of our community.

Who can participate?

found! supports innovative and sustainable initiatives to create jobs for asylum-seekers. These initiatives are supported during an intensive, five-month-long incubation process. The goal is to successfully establish these initiatives in the market. Applications can be submitted by individuals, teams, or existing initiatives.

We are concentrating on projects that are using modern, innovative technologies in their business model.

What services do the participants receive?

Part of the five-month six-month incubation process Acceleration Program are:

- Business Coaching
- Individual expert advice
- Mentoring
- Access to tailor-made workshops and trainings
- Work space in the co-working space of Impact Hub Vienna
- Access to the national and international networks of Deloitte Austria and the Impact Hub

Experts from Deloitte Austria and the Impact Hub Vienna work together with the six most promising submissions to plan, implement and further develop the business ideas. In addition to intensive consulting services, three of the start-ups have the opportunity to receive additional financial support (EUR 25.000,-), as well as further pro-bono advice.

Who is running found!?

Deloitte Future Fund

"Making an impact that matters" - that is Deloitte's global vision. Deloitte has a positive and sustainable impact on customers, employees and society. Corporate responsibility is an essential part of this process in order to make a positive contribution to the development of society.

The Deloitte Future Fund combines Deloitte's core competences: promote people, develop projects, find solutions, introduce expert knowledge, identify opportunities and create new prospects for the future. In this context, Deloitte Austria concentrates on specific social problems and groups of affected populations. The goal is to create prospects for the active participation of people in society. This benefits the people, the location and the society as a whole.

In the Deloitte Future Fund, Deloitte Austria has bundled the resources and activities for concrete social issues. For a three year period – until 2018, Deloitte Austria will focus its Corporate Responsibility projects on a highly relevant topic that is very important to society: the creation of prospects for refugees through education and jobs. This is to enable the social integration of recognized refugees.

Impact Hub Vienna

Impact Hub Vienna is an incubation and acceleration ecosystem for impact entrepreneurs. Part innovation lab, part community center, and part business incubator, we provide changemakers with the resources they need to innovate creative business solutions and technologies to society's most complex challenges.

Impact Hub Vienna is also part of the diverse, global Impact Hub network of over 15,000 members in 100+ locations around the world. From Berlin to Johannesburg, Singapore to San Francisco, our network is a rich community of entrepreneurs, freelancers, business experts, and impact investors all working toward a common purpose—to prototype the future of society and business.
